

Administrative Policy for Alcoholic Beverages

The user may serve only beer and wine with the written approval of the Management Team or its designated representative; and must obtain the necessary permit if alcohol will be sold. All alcoholic beverages must be removed from building at the end of the event.